FEATURE POURS – ICONS OF AUSTRALIA

This summer we are offering a rare opportunity to try some of Australia's most iconic wines. With two whites and two reds on show, there's something for everyone, with all of these wines showing why Australian wine is looking better than ever when it's in the right hands. Try them on their own, as a flight or paired with our chef's menu

		75ml	150ml
2018	Crawford River 'Reserve' Riesling, Henty, Victoria Crafted from a select few rows in the vineyard. These particular rows are part of the original plantings and sit along an ironstone ridge, imparting a unique flavour profile. The wine is intensely structured and distinctive. The wine is only produced in the best years and, with 8 years of age on it, this 2018 release is looking spectacular	24	48
2024	Bindi 'Quartz' Chardonnay, Macedon Ranges, Victoria From Bindi's original Chardonnay planting dating back to 1988, this wine comes from a specific section in the upper part of the vineyard where the Quartz content of the soil is higher, imparting extra complexity and intensity to the fruit. This wine shows an impeccable balance between fruit, oak and freshness	30	60
2022	By Farr 'RP' Pinot Noir, Geelong, Victoria The 'RP' Pinot Noir is named for Robyn Pamela, the matriarch of the Farr family. The fruit comes from the close-planted 'Cote' vineyard. Well judged use of whole bunch fermentation and new oak lead to a wine with exceptional perfume. The palate is silky but detailed with a finish that never seems to end	38	76
2022	Mount Mary 'Quintet' Cabernet Blend, Yarra Valley, Victoria The Quintet vineyard is planted to five Bordeaux grape varieties; Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Malbec and Petit Verdot. Medium bodied with an incredible balance between the bold fruit flavours and the muscular tannins. This is a highly enjoyable wine which showcases just how great Yarra Cabernet can be	40	80
